DETAILED ACTION

Allowable Subject Matter

1. Claims 1-8 are allowed.
2. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

In terms of claim 1, the prior art of record does not teach alone or in combination, a timing generation circuit including a load data switching means that divides the timing memory into a plurality of memory regions either in a column direction or a row direction to generate the plurality of timing data at the same time, in combination with all other elements in claim 1.

As to claims 2-7, the claims are allowed as each recite limitations that further limit allowable claim 1.

In terms of claim 8, the prior art of record does not teach alone or in combination, a semiconductor test device, including a timing generation circuit including a load data switching means that divides memory regions of the timing memory into a plurality of memory regions either in a column direction or a row direction to generate the plurality of timing data at the same time, in combination with all other elements in claim 8.

3. Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."

Conclusion

4. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. US Patents to Honda (7,164,617) and Housako (5,406,132).
